Japanese Canadians in 1980:

Nisei World to See Many Changes

By TOYO TAKATA

Now, returning to the second generation, the Nisei. Like anyone else, the Nisei will be 25 years older in 1980. Even now, the term Nisei seems to denote young, up-and-coming—but by then that will no longer apply. For a few hundred Niseis will be receiving a monthly government cheque even if the age limit is not lowered by that time.

In the strictest sense of their meaning, there will be no more Nisei or Sansei. The word Sansei, denoting the third generation, never has caught on, very few refer to them as such. Curiously, it had more common usage in the Nisei vernacular before the newest generation became a reality.

Nisei itself, as a term, will die. It is too far imbedded in our thinking not to remain at least during the lifetime of the Nisei. But it will be a loose term referring to any Canadian-born Japanese with at regard to genealogy.

Hereafter, in this article, Nisei will be similarly used as a general term. Since, as we mentioned earlier, the Issei will no longer be a significant group in 1980, Nisei will apply to all persons of Japanese ancestry in Canada exclusive of new immigrants from Japan.

Immigration to Boost JC Population to 40,000

Oh yes, immigration is to be expected from Japan. Though it will be controlled in number as it is in the United States and in some Latin American countries, Canada will, in our belief, provide for some liberalization of her present immigration policy that some newcomers will be allowed to add to our number.

Including these expected immigrants, together with the natural increase the total JC population should be at least 40,000.

Sounds too high? No, although we do not know the present JC total, it should be around 25,000 and the present birthrate, as in the case of the over-all population, is very high. By the next census which will be taken in 1961, our total should exceed [illegible].

Even at 40,000 in 1980, our population in relation to the estimated Canadian total, will still be an undersized drop in the bucket.

The subject of immigration raises another interesting question of the future. Will the addition of newcomers from Japan offset the loss of Issei readership so that a Japanese language newspaper will continue to be needed?

Not necessarily. There is a tremendous thirst for knowledge of English in Japan—it's an important part of their curricula. And those who have any thought of emigrating to North America would have that extra incentive to learn. While a Japanese language publication would be handy, unlike the "first" Issei this new group would come better equipped, language-wise.

What about the English language paper devoted to the Nisei? It will continue to be published while they remain interested in themselves. While there are Nisei organizations of any kind, a publication will be a necessary part of their society. And Nisei organizations are far from dying.

Five-Pin Bowling a Fad, Will Die (says writer)

However, we will come out on a limb and offer that one popular Nisei activity will decline shortly, and possibly very quickly. That's five-pin bowling. Despite possible denials, we believe that the game has reached saturation.

Five-pin bowling is a relatively new sport among the Nisei. It was just beginning to get popular prior to the evacuation when the Nisei was able to afford a little recreation that was not too expensive. It was renewed more intensely after the war.

There are several reasons why we predict its decline and possible [illegible]. The game may be more of a fad than it is a sport, and something else might come along to replace it. For instance, ten-pin is catching on among Nisei and once anyone starts rolling the heavier ball, he never goes back to five-pin. Then too, the Nisei has more money to spend, so that he might take up other activities, sports or otherwise, which so far has been out of the reach of his packet.

We feel that Nisei bowling alleys might soon feel the pinch in recruiting teams and players. For their sake, we hope we're wrong.

On the subject of Niseis being able to afford more in the way of the so-called better things of life, we need not elaborate. There are already too many evidences of that.

But we'll predict even beyond that. By 1980, at least one Nisei will be in the millionaire class and there might be others. No, we are not eyeing any one particular Nisei. But we suspect that there are several Niseis who, if they continue to acquire wealth at the same accelerating rate as they have been during the past five years, could hit the [illegible] class in another 25 years.

After all, there are Japanese millionaires in Brazil and we believe there are some in the U.S., so why not Canada? Remember too, that a million dollars today is a lot different from a million dollars 25 years ago, and its actual worth will probably still come down 25 years from [illegible].

Outstanding Canadians One in a Million. . .

When will a Nisei make a name for himself. Will some Nisei name become familiar to Canadians as that of the Chinese-Canadian football star, Normie Kwong, in sports or any other field?

That's expecting [illegible] much, even in 25 years. He's really what they would call one in a million, and there will be only [illegible]

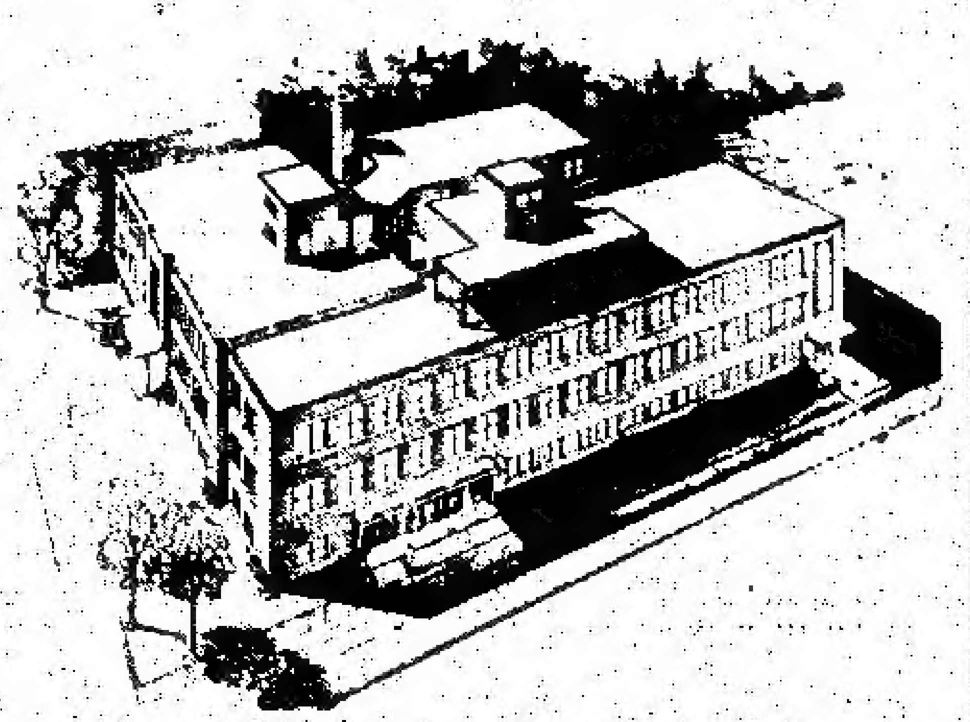
MP Urges Japanese Immigrant Quota



Jean Talon Expansion to Be Completed in Sept.

MONTREAL.—After careful study of local needs and after consulting the expert in this field, Dr. Gerald LaSalle, and government authorities, Jean Talon Hospital has decided to add a new wing to double capacity, Dr. C. George Hori, president, has announced.

Excavation and piling work has already been finished and construction is progressing rapidly. The new building is expected to be completed in September. D. C. Woods is architect, and Nobuichi Yasuoka consulting architect. James P. Keith and Associates are consulting engineers. The building contract is in the hands of St. Denis Construction Co. Cost of the new wing with equipment and furnishings is expected to be $700,000.

The new wing (foreground, above) is 154 feet long on Garnier street and 52 feet wide facing Jean Talon street. First floor will be occupied by the clinic with X-ray department, laboratories, emergency operation room, fracture room, etc. Second and third floors will be divided suitable into modern private rooms, 2 bed rooms, and 6-bed wards. The new building is modern in every respect, and is planned to take additional stories in future.

The hospital has been granted $200,000 from the provincial government and another $78,000 has been promised by the federal government.

The hospital employs 93 persons, including six interns. Since its opening in August, 1954, Jean Talon Hospital has been steadily overcrowded, with a bed occupancy of 95%. Every available space has been used, and even corridors were used to place emergency cases.

Japan Now Democratic, Immigrants Acceptable, Says Quebec Liberal

OTTAWA.—Limited Japanese immigration to Canada was urged Monday in the House of Commons by a Liberal backbencher from Quebec.

L. F. Roberge, Stanstead, said Japanese immigration would have been out of the question a few years ago. However, now that Japan had adopted our democracy as a way of life, Canada should allow a few Japanese immigrants each year.

Speaking in the debate on the Speech from the Throne, Mr. Roberge phrased his argument as a suggestion that the "minister of immigration might be permitted to remove this stigma from the Japanese people and open our doors a little."

"It could be done on a strict quota basis," he said.

Citing the assimilation of some resettled Japanese in Quebec province, Mr. Roberge gave his opinion that the Japanese can become good citizens of Canada. Further he mentioned the embarrassment of Canadian businessmen when confronted by Japanese exporters with Canada's restriction on Japanese immigrants. Acceptance of immigrants would help Canada's trade with Japan in many ways, he said.

For his final argument, Mr. Roberge spoke of the difficulties encountered by Canadian missionaries in social welfare education because Canada does not allow entry to Japanese. (Full text of Mr. Roberge's speech appears on page two.)

CPA Not Employing Nisei as Stewardesses

Are Nisei employed as stewardesses by Canadian Pacific Airlines? That's the implication given by Toronto Star correspondent William Stevenson, who wrote this week on the increasing number of Oriental air hostesses on Asian routes:

"Canadians who are not normally slow in these matters have been employing Japanese and Chinese girls on the air routes between Asia and Vancouver for the very practical reason that passengers frequently speak only Oriental languages."

Sounds logical, but not entirely true. To the knowledge of The New Canadian, no Japanese Canadians have been accepted as stewardesses by CPA. However, Chinese Canadians are known to be so employed.

Ignores Income Tax Fisherman Fined $50

LILLOOET, B.C.—Ichiro Shiho of Devine was fined $50 and $5 costs in Lillooet police court for failing to file his 1954 Income Tax return. The accused had also been fined $25 for failing to file in 1952.

Shiho's explanation was that he is a fisherman and had been at the coast and did not receive the registered letter warning him of impending prosecution until he returned to his home two days before Christmas.

M.P. URGES LIMITED JAPANESE IMMIGRATION

I should like to deal with a matter which is a rather complex and touchy one. A few years ago I would not have dared to mention this, but conditions have changed and things are looking brighter all over the world. I refer to Japanese immigration. Everyone realizes that to deal with this problem a few years ago would have been out of the question, but the peace treaty has been signed and the Japanese have adopted our democratic way of life and perhaps it is our duty to try to keep them in that way of life.

Japan was a member of the league of nations and it has since shown a spirit of real co-operation. I do not want to put this in the way of a formal request but perhaps I could suggest to the minister of immigration that a change be made in our immigration laws. Under the present law Japanese immigrants are not permitted to enter this country; our doors are closed to them. I think under present conditions our minister of immigration might be permitted to remove this stigma from the Japanese people and open our doors a little.

As I have stated to the former minister of immigration, I do not believe in open-door immigration, but I like to see immigration treated realistically. People who are permitted to enter this country should be those who can comply with our immigration laws. We do not want aristocrats and blueblooded people, but those who come here must have good health and good character and have a good background. They must have everything that will help to make them good citizens. Although the Japanese people are used to a different climate and have a different religion and way of life, I think they can become good citizens of Canada.

In the constituency of the hon. member for Brome-Missisquoi (Mr. Deslières) there are some Japanese who were displaced persons during the war. They have assimilated themselves into the population of that district and have become good citizens. I have talked over this problem with some responsible people, one being a former member of parliament who has been to Japan a couple of times and has studied the problem over there. He tells me that when he goes there to do business he finds the Japanese willing to enter into negotiations for the exportation of goods or perhaps the purchase of some of our products, but during the course of conversations with them they always ask, "What have you Canadians against the Japanese that you will not permit more immigration into your country?"

Our representatives over there are rather on the spot because they cannot reply to a question like that. All they can do is to reply the best they can. As I say, I have discussed this matter with Mr. Halle, a former member of parliament, and we may hear more about it later. He has told me that a change in our policy in this regard would help our export trade in the way of cattle and raw materials with some manufactured goods. He says that there is a good market in Japan for farm machinery. It would also help our commerce with Japan in other ways.

I know it will be said that if we open our doors we will have too many Japanese coming into the country, but that is something for the powers that be to decide. We are looking for markets all over the world and I think this would offer a chance to improve our situation in that direction. Our missionaries over there would be benefited in carrying our social welfare education. There is always this feeling in the minds of the Japanese and they treat our missionaries in an inferior way. They do not have the freedom that they would have otherwise. I hope the minister will give a little consideration to this problem.

As I said before, I am not in favour of open-door immigration, but it could be done on a strict quota basis. We should treat the Japanese the same as we do the people of other countries in that part of the world. This concludes what I have to say on the Japanese situation although I could extend my remarks and speak a little longer.

40,000 of us by 1980. The most eminent Canadian Nisei so far is Dr. S. I. Hayakawa, and he made his prominence in the United States as an author, lecturer and expert on semantics.

For some Nisei to make some outstanding contribution to Canada, keep your eye on the medical field. We expect to find the most outstanding Canadian Nisei in some form of medical or related study.

Why there? There have been a few evidences that that's the direction to look. Recall in what fields Niseis have gained their Ph.D.'s. And many of our most promising Niseis have gone into medicine. Moreover, whether it's temperament, or whatever it is, the Nisei personality seems particularly suited here to make a name for himself.

Incidentally, even now there is a higher ratio of JC doctors and dentists in proportion to the total JC population as there are other Canadian doctors and dentists in comparison to the total Canadian population. For instance, while there is only one dentist to every 2,838 Canadians, there is one JC dentist to about every 1,500 JCs. And look for this higher ratio to continue.

But to find the field in which most Niseis will be employed look to electronics, including television. In keeping with the times, most Niseis will be found on the most promising avenue towards success.

There it is. Some thoughts and prophecies about the Nisei future.

Perhaps we may have to eat our hat. But by 1980 we may decide not to be around or, failing that, scientists will have perfected a hat that can be eaten in cases of necessity.

A Rising Sansei Star . . .

By CINDERELLA

To Japanese Canadians a Nisei Success Story is something very special. To discover a Sansei "making good" is almost unbelievable.

Eileen Nakamura is a Sansei actress who is making a name for herself in the most difficult of all profession—the legitimate theatre. Montrealers fortunate enough to have caught a performance of "The Teahouse of the August Moon" will remember Miss Higa Jiga, the militant leader of the Ladies' League for Democratic Action who demanded equal rights for the women of Tobiki.

I do not believe I am wrong when I say that of the many roles given to Orientals in the "Teahouse" (excluding, of course, the part of Sakini), Miss Nakamura's "Miss Higa Jiga," along with Turn Nakamura's "Oshira" stand out as individuals. The Nakamuras, daughter and father, made of their small parts something more than mere type characters. In their all-too brief moments on stage, they created two very real people who were able to strike a responsive note in each of us, sitting in the audience—Miss Higa Jiga, the spry, acid-tongued spinster school teacher, determined to get what she wanted even if it meant her writing directly to the President of the United States, and Oshira, the ancient man of Tobiki, pleading with his conquerors for a teahouse, the symbol of a way of life which to his people is a needful one if they are to live as human beings.

What is Eileen Nakamura like when she emerges from behind the none-too-flattering make-up of Miss Higa Jiga? It is difficult to describe a personality on the strength of one brief meeting, but Miss Nakamura made a very definite impression. She is petite, slender, with white skin and dark expressive eyes. In the darkness of "behind stage" of Her Majesty's Theatre, her dark, long hair contrasting with her scarlet coat, she could have been the wild, dark Cathy of Bronte's "Wuthering Heights," any Irish beauty in any of the numerous Irish plays in which she took part while studying drama, or one of those very attractive American Niseis one sees in the rotogravure section of the New York Times. For me, Eileen Nakamura off-stage overshadows even the beauteous Reiko Sato, the Lotus Blossom of the "Teahouse."

Eileen looks like a girl whose chief worry might be too many beaux and too many marriage proposals, but when she speaks of the theatre, she speaks with the authority of one who has given much time to the study of her craft. When asked why she chose theatre as her career, she said, "How could I miss? I grew up in the theatre. My father is an actor. My uncle is an actor and he married a Kabuki actress and brought her to America!" Eileen believes that people who grow up in such an atmosphere end up either hating theatre or loving theatre. She grew up loving it. How deeply this love for the theatre is revealed in the fact that after two years of pre-med studies, she suddenly switched to Hunter College and drama. Not content with an ordinary degree in drama, she went on to the Yale School of Drama for her M.A. degree.

Commenting on the Niseis' future in legitimate theatre, Miss Nakamura spoke most enthusiastically of the Niseis who are making names for themselves in the many branches of theatre—set designing, costume designing, choregraphy and dancing. Nisei actresses, she agreed, did not fare so happily. For them as yet, there are only a limited number of roles available, such as the Japanese war bride, the Asiatic Mata Hari, Madame Butterfly in all its numerous hackneyed versions, Geisha Girls and maids of all descriptions. The Niseis who dare go into acting must cope, not only with the problem of keen competition with hundreds of talented American actors and actresses, but also with the very definite physical factor, the Oriental face.

Miss Nakamura has been very fortunate. While attending drama courses at Hunter College she was lucky to have been engaged in television work almost continuously, playing the gamut of "typically Oriental" characters. With graduation she got a "walk on" part in the original "Teahouse" production on Broadway. She passed up a chance to understudy Mariko Niki as Lotus Blossom to accept a chance to serve as an apprentice director in summer stock. And this fall came the opportunity to tour with the [illegible] house." After her one-year contract expire[illegible] that question she shrugged her shoulders, smiled and said, "That is in the lap of the gods!"

When asked if she did not consider Miss [illegible] Jiga as a part with definitely more scope [illegible]matically than that of Lotus Blossom, she [illegible] side-stepped the question with "I find [illegible] great fun!"

Miss Nakamura knows exactly where [illegible] going. Utterly candid, she gave me her [illegible] solution to the problem which faces Nisei [illegible] aspire for a career in the world of make-be[illegible]. She believes the novelty of the Japanese [illegible] girl and the Geisha Girl is wearing off in America. But she is not especially worried about [illegible] Eileen is an American, and it is in America [illegible] an American and not particularly as a Sa[nsei] (although she is very proud of being a Sa[nsei]) that she wants to make her mark. She has [illegible] own ideas of what she wants to do in Amer[ican] theatre. Her eyes are set on a career as a di[rec]tor. She told me with refreshing frankness [illegible] although she loves acting, although she is a competent actress, she knows also that she [is no] rare genius. In theatre, at this time, she be[lieves] that directing will give her greater possib[ilities] for earning a living. And she told me too, [illegible] if she were allowed to choose, she would pr[efer] directing musical comedies. She firmly be[lieves] that the musical comedy medium is as clo[se as] one can get to America's heart.

Did Miss Nakamura have any advice to those contemplating a theatrical career? [At the] risk of sounding trite she scatters one p[illegible] wisdom: "If you want to become an actress, well, don't . . . get married instead!"

And there one sees a rising Sansei actres[s in] a nut shell—a girl who learned the Japa[nese] dance as a child growing up in Seattle, wh[o was] familiar with the rolling cadences of [illegible] drama long before she even had an inkli[ng of] its meaning; a girl who has been close to [illegible] paint all her life; a girl who is intensely A[meri]can and wants to make her imprint as an A[meri]can, and yet would like to go to Japan [illegible] search because she believes that Japan ca[n] [illegible] and enrich American theatre; a girl who is, [in] her own words, an "incurable optimist" in a [illegible] where there is a super-abundance of talen[t and] an under-abundance of prize acting roles.

But Eileen Nakamura is a girl to watc[h. She] has her eyes on the stars and her feet planted on the hard, firm earth of reality.

「それは、たいへん結構なお話です」

「あたし、たいへん結構ありませんよ、ねえ」

「ミス・ドロシイ、あなたゼントルマンの嬢という男を知りませんか」

「ゼ……の中には、ゼントルマン、一人もいませんねえ」

小太郎君は兩手で頭の上にリーゼント・スタイルの線をえがいて見せ、その兩手を上衣のポケットにつつこんで、チョコチョコと部屋の中を歩きながら、

「ミスタ・ボマードですかなるほどね！」

麻生和子（麻生太賀吉氏夫人）

しかし、當時家庭的にはその後別れた前夫人と仲がよくなかったため、パーティに出席するときも一人の時が多く、たまに二人連れの時は何となく氣が進まぬようで、決して幸福ではなかったようです。

とはいっても、チャーチル前首相と並ぶと、やはりまだまだといった感じです。イーデン首相にしてもチャーチル前首相と一緒だとなんとなく押されてしまうのでしょう。

とにかくイギリスにおけるイーデン首相の人氣は、昔におとらず大變なものでした。私はその原因はイーデン首相が「もっともイギリス人らしいイギリス人」だというところにあるのではないかと思います。

よきカナダ人になり得るとロベージ議員演說

既報の通り、今週月曜午後、オタワ議會でクベック州スタンステッド選出自由黨議員エル・イー・ロベージ氏が日本人の移民について演說したが、議會速錄による同議員の演說を意譯すると次の通り。

△もし我々がドアを明けてしまうと、この國へおよそ多くの日本人が入って來るのではないか、と言われるのを承知している。しかしそれは當局が何んとでも決められるものである。我々は世界中に市場を求めているのであり、こうすることによって、東洋方面の市場狀況が改善するチャンスが與える事になると考える。

四大使を發令

【東京時事通信】日本政府は今週の閣議で次の特命全權大使人事を決定、正式發令した。

△新任 タイ大使澁澤信一 イタリア大使太田一郎 スペイン大使與謝野秀 エジプト大使土田豐

△依願免 芳澤謙吉（國府大使） 原田健（イタリア大使）—なお井口大使は二月十日華府出發、歸朝の途につく。

ソ連、軟らく出る

一、ブルガーニン首相は内容嚴秘の書簡をアイゼンハワー大統領に今週送ったこと。その内容は『更に世界平和促進のためのもの』とみられている。

Just finished reading Arthur Miller's Broadway play, "Death of a Salesman" (didn't catch the reel version), a character study of millions of salesmen, name of Willy Loman. Willy, one of the back-slapping braggarts, lives in a dream-world of the past and future, interspersed with moments of depression. This [illegible] world he passes on to his cherished sons, Biff and Happy, who turned into a couple of good-for-nothings. Biff finally "finds himself" but crazy mixed-up Willy hops into his car and smashes it up . . . and so ends the tragic life of Willy Loman.

The staging itself is wonderful, all taking place on the same [illegible] setting with only lighting techniques to carry the time back twenty-odd years in the frequent flashbacks. It's well worth reading.

The other day one of my friends from B.C. blew into town to [illegible] what life in good old hogtown was like. To sum up her [illegible] after a couple of months, those three little words—No Like. "Everyone's so cold, so unfriendly, etc. etc. . . ."

But I like Toronto—it gives you all kinds of different people to watch (one of my hobbies) and also a sort of privacy (in other words, everyone ignores you). . . . Just last night, one car crashes into another at a busy intersection, the owners hop out to argue, and no one gives them a second glance. Reminds me of the time [illegible] in Los Angeles when, on a sight-seeing bus-tour we came upon a shapely young girl (in shorts, in November, yet) lying prostrate in the middle of Sunset Boulevard, just one man standing guard and hundreds of cars nonchalantly whizzing by. Our driver slowed to 25, glanced down, and announced, solemnly, "She's dead," and passed by the wayside. . . .

In the Vancouver Sun, university student Elmer Hara posed between two beautiful belles to publicize U.B.C.'s International House dance, "Antiks in Athens", to take place on Monday at the Commodore.

Tonight is the Hamilton JCCA-Kyowa Keiro-Kai at the Hungarian Hall, 242 James St. North, starting at 7. . . . Next Saturday night is Glenn Miller Nite '56 at the UNF, the annual dance by the U of T NSC. . . . The following Friday will be the Valentine Dance, featuring the choosing of Miss Valentine, 1956. . . . Contestants are now being chosen by the various clubs. Heard that Jane Edamura is to be Club Ami's ambassadress, and Sally Akada will be Rec Socialite's rep. Ain't it a shame that nominees can't stay in there and fight? . . .

A new name will be picked at tonight's gathering of the just-amalgamated After Hours-Saturday Nite group. Everyone's invited to dancing and fun at the University Settlement House from 8 p.m.

MONTREAL NEWS

(From the Bulletin)

MONTREAL — Younger members of the community are especially invited to the annual General Meeting of the Quebec JCCA to be held in late February or early March. The chapter needs life, drive, enthusiasm and new ideas, qualities which are usually found in young minds. It is felt the top executive positions should be reserved for youth and older more experienced members should act as advisors.

Coming events: "Rashomon" will feature a movie night sponsored by the Ave Maria Club next Saturday, Feb. 4, from 8 p.m. at the Community Centre. Admission 50 cents. . . . McGill Campus Club will hold a Leap Year Social Saturday, Feb. 11. . . . Nisei Fellowship group plans a St. Valentine's Social Feb. 11 from 8 p.m. at Church of All Nations. . . . Possibilities of forming a Nisei teen-age group will be discussed in a social evening at Church of All Nations next Friday, Feb. 3, from 7:30 p.m. Gordon Imai is in charge.

Kathleen Hayashi and Rene Z'Graggen announce that new dance classes will be held each Sunday afternoon at the Community Centre commencing early in February.

By EDDIE HISAKI

THE REBUILDING JOB being carried on by rookie coach Roy Miyasaki of St. Christopher Mustangs is apparent in their record to date in the Bathurst-College Community basketball league, one win in six games. This scheme, however, was motivated by circumstances, not choice. Promising youngsters such as Ted Nishimoto, Henry Edamura and George Tanaka, trained through the Mustangs junior system (now defunct), were forced to give up the game this year. And the loss via retirement of Macka Makimoto, long a vital cog in the Mustang machine, was reason enough for Roy to start a renovating drive. This then, was the situation when brother Frank bade fond adieu to the basketball scene, leaving Roy with the coaching chores.

What Price Victory? Experience is gained through trial and error, but mistakes in the B-C loop tend to be disastrous. As the season rolled through its first lap, Roy's newer recruits were like the proverbial little boy: extremely good when good, atrocious when bad. To get them to play a more consistent brand of ball was his first problem.

Transforming crude talent into a well-functioning unit is old stuff to Roy. In his four-year record as coach of the junior Steeds, he spent the first season familiarizing his players with the Mustang pattern of play, and the juniors showed the extensiveness of their training by walking off with the championship mug in the Nisei league the next three years. Tougher competition of the B-C league increased the odds against a repeat performance, but the improving play of his first year men this year may be an indication of days to come.

Mustang Rookies. George Shiozaki and Dickie Tanaka are two of Roy's top prodigies. A third-year man in the Sunday league, Shiozaki cracked the starting line-up this year. Eighteen-year old Tanaka has easily been the outstanding rookie of the squad. Sam Koyata and Mike Kitagawa, two very aggressive imports from the Alberta hardwoods, are showing improvement. Ike Murase, a Hamiltonian employed in the Queen City, is coming along, as is Alan Fujiwara, a veteran of the Nisei league.

Herby Still Tops. Herb Miyasaki, Canada's top Nisei hoopster, remains the Mustang kingpin. Completely recovered from a lame back which plagued him for the past two seasons, Herby is in the runner-up spot in the league scoring race with a 22 points-per-game average. And with Andy's A.C. in the triple A International League, last year's Canadian senior B champs, he averages eight points per game.

Surprising has been the brilliant play of little Paul Hirano, who Roy says is playing the best basketball of his career this season. Paul's no. 3 among the scoring leaders behind Herby...He has matured a great deal in court know-how this term and his point total is swelled by his fantastic foul shooting accuracy—a 90% average, tops in the circuit.

Time Waits for No One. As the schedule heads into the home stretch, Mustangs retain a slim chance of finishing in the money circle. They must win at the minimum, three of their remaining four contests. At the same time, however, the fourth place Trotters must lose most of their games. Certainly the schedule won't favor Mustangs, as they face the co-leaders, Andy's and Tridents, in two of those four tilts.

Few New Cagers. As in so many other Nisei sports, Mustangs will be faced with player shortage in a few years. The folding of the local Nisei league last spring didn't help the situation any. Sources of future prospects have been narrowed down to the city high school leagues, where even now Nisei hoopsters are limited in number. Roy comments that a pre-teen or teenage house league strongly organized would be an assurance for the future of Nisei basketball.

ODDS AND ENDS

Last Saturday Toronto Niseidom lost one of its most popular citizens, Sus Nagami, passed away. . . . Danny Ichii, bowling in the Club Aimi once-a-fortnight league, rolled a 956 triple, a club record and a personal high. Danny's total was composed of 306, 356 (including 9 strikes in a row), and 294. . . . A snooker league in Toronto, now in its second year, has a 42-game schedule for eight teams. Last year's league champs were Nobby Fujimoto and Mits Kuroda, while playoff winners were Roy Kobayashi and Jackie Tanaka. . . . Marg Naylor, shortstop with Toronto Cameras in summer, is just as adept with a badminton racquet as with a baseball glove. She's T&D junior B badminton champion for the second year running. . . . Roy Tanaka, well known in Toronto Nisei sports circles, recently announced his engagement to Jessie Nishimura. . . . Nisei Flyers battle Simoniz for fourth place tomorrow in the third game at 3:30 p.m. . . . Flyer banquet tonight at Scott's Tavern.

Fidelis Casaba-Tossers Avoid Score Sheet In Opening Halves

By OLD FAITHFUL

HAMILTON. — Low scoring first halves are becoming a fad. Club Fidelis hoopsters definitely seemed to be in an un-hooping mood last Friday night (Jan. 20) as the first halves of both games showed 14-all ties, with neither team in each game having done anything worth calling basketball.

Dukes 51, Yogis 25

It was a far cry from the spectacular game of last week in which both teams seemed invincible, and the second half didn't promise much more. Spectators were pleasantly surprised when Dukes' Frank Fukumoto suddenly began a streak of top-notch shooting which materialized at the end of 40 minutes of play as a 51-25 win for Dukes. Fukumoto's 22 points were supported by Paul Yamaguchi's 15, while Yogis could boast of [illegible] Vansickle's 7 and Mits Murase's 6.

Comets 43, Dukes 38

Unfortunately for the Ducal host captain Fukumoto couldn't repeat his first game performance and sank only 12 points. The reckless Comets stood out as [illegible] during the second [illegible] and the final whistle [illegible] a 43-38 victory. [illegible] Ohashi [illegible] with [illegible] additional points, while Billy Matsui contributed 14 badly-needed [illegible] for the [illegible] [illegible] excellent [illegible] the last minute.

KEG NEWS

HAMILTON.—On Jan. 21, veteran Mits Shimoda came through with a sparkling 789 performance—his season's best. Tak Tonegai (78?) took over high average lead with 224, one up on Tad Kondo. Jim Kawai 725, Sam Shoda 717 were also tops. Shoda's "Doodlebugs" are current league leaders with 41½ wins. Tonegai's "T-Cs" and Nakamura's "Royals" trail with [illegible] each. Unpredictable Yuki [illegible] shinaka repeated an [illegible] 720 to prove her 721 of previous week was no stroke of luck. DANFORTH.—Tets Seki with 848 (339) broke the previous high triple of 749. Other scores: Tak Towata 748, Monk Tanaka 745, Harley Hatanaka 694, Gloria Nishimura 615, Jean Seki [illegible] May Barsello 590. Team results: 7-0: Aki over Bob. 4-3: Don [illegible] Tak over Harley and Tets. 5-2: Kats over Porky. —EORK

WINNIPEG, Bossei-Sonan: Albatross and Eagles came up with strong bowling to tie for lead [illegible] ship in the current series with Canaries on their heels, only a point behind. Flamingos and Sparrows share third spot, followed by Hummingbirds, Parrots and Orioles. Henry Morishita's 717 raised his average to [illegible] for the lead, one point better than Tora Suzuki. Mas Miyai follows with 199. Ladies' side is [illegible] May Watanabe's 182 and Marg Ayukawa's 170.

High three totals were Henry 717, Hisashi Matsuo 654, Mas 618, Ken Utsunomiya 611 and Marge 637. —WMM
